

Because of the possibility of interference to existing radio communications services, I feel that existing Part 15 rules should be TIGHTENED (more restrictive) for BPL operations. Allowed emissions of BPL RF should be 10 to 20 db (or more) lower than what is now specified for Part 15 devices. Under no circumstances should the Part 15 emission levels be raised for BPL or any other non-licensed radiating device. Thank you.